“The importance of the Biblical conception cannot be overstressed. Here for the first time Western man was presented with a purposive (purposeful), goal-directed interpretation of history. The Classical doctrine of recurrence (cyclical) had been able to give a ‘substantiality’ (substance) to history, but it had not given it any aim or direction.”

Matthew 24:1-14

¹ Jesus left the temple and was going away, when His disciples came to point out to Him the buildings of the temple.

² But He answered them,

“You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down.”

³ As He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying,

“Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

“See that no one leads you astray.

5 For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’
and they will lead many astray.

6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars.
See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place,
but the end is not yet.

kingdom,
and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.
