Matthew 24:45-51

45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his master has set over His household, to give them their food at the proper time?

46 Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when He comes.

47 Truly, I say to you, He will set him over all His possessions.

48 But if that wicked servant says to himself, ‘My master is delayed,’
49 and begins to beat his fellow servants and eats and drinks with drunkards,

50 the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know
51 and will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites.

In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Mark 2

¹⁵ And as He reclined at table in his (Matthew's) house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and His disciples, for there were many who followed Him. ¹⁶ And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that He was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to His disciples, "Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹⁷ And when Jesus heard it, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

To live without 'accountability' and without 'responsibility'.

In a nutshell, the difference between these two concepts is:

you are accountable to people,
and you are responsible for things,
*but both are a conscious choice that comes from within.

So...therefore...what now?

WARINGS

So...therefore...what now?

Faithfulness (faith) and wisdom (maturity) in serving the 'households' God (mission) has placed us in is the call of God for us to take responsibility and to be accountable for how we handle the life He has set out for us to live.

So...therefore...what now?

Faithfulness (faith) and wisdom (maturity) in serving the 'households' God (mission) has placed us in is the call of God for us to take responsibility and to be accountable for how we handle the life He has set out for us to live.

To dismiss the imminent return of Christ leads us to relational abuse and moral degradation that destroys our understanding of the nature of God and His design for life.

So...therefore...what now?

To dismiss the imminent return of Christ leads us to relational abuse and moral degradation that destroys our understanding of the nature of God and His design for life.

We are all capable of both, and we will be held responsible and accountable to God Himself.
