Joel's Narrative

17

*“And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams;*

Acts 2:14-41

Peter's Narrative

- 22 “Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves know—
- 23 this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God,
you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men.
- 24 God raised Him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it.
- 25 For David says concerning Him,

Acts 2:14-41

David's Narrative

26 *“I saw the Lord always before me,
for He is at my right hand that I may not be shaken;
therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
my flesh also will dwell in hope.*

27 For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption.

28 *You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’*

Acts 2:14-41

David's Narrative

*"I saw the Lord always before me,
for He is at my right hand that I may not be shaken."*

Psalm 16:8-11

King David circa 1000 BC

When he was facing some sort of significant opposition, he did not fear death because of God's faithful presence. His burial site might be just below the upper room where Jesus and His disciples ate the last supper and Pentecost unfolded.

Acts 2:14-41

Peter's Narrative

- 29 “Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
- 30 Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, 31 he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.
- 32 This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses.
- 33 Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit,
He has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing.
- 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says,

Peter's Narrative

- 36 Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”
- 37 Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”
- 38 And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- 39 For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to Himself.”
- 40 And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.”
- 41 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

Acts 3 The healing of the lame man

¹¹ While he clung to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astounded, ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's.

¹² And when Peter saw it he addressed the people:

“Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk?

¹³ The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His servant Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him.

¹⁴ But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,

¹⁵ and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses.

¹⁶ And His name—by faith in His name—has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

“And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.

But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that His Christ would suffer, He thus fulfilled.

Repent therefore, and turn back, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that He may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, whom heaven must receive until the time for restoring all the things about which God spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets long ago.
