Matthew 16:13-16

“Who do people say that the Son of Man is?”

And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, other say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

He said to them,

“But who do you say that I am?”

Simon Peter replied,

“You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

Matthew 16:21

From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed...

He was beaten, scourged, flogged and humiliated,
By 9 am was nailed naked to a cross between two common criminals, one who mocked Him and the other begged Him for mercy.

Matthew 27:45-50

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying

“Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?”

that is,

“My God, my God,
why have you forsaken me?”

Matthew 27:45-50

47 And some of the bystanders, hearing it, said, "This man is calling Elijah." 48 And one of them at once ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine, and put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink. 49 But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." 50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit.

“Eloi, Eloi,
lema sabachthani?”

“My God, my God,
why have you forsaken me?”

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Forsaken

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Sad

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Broken

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Guilty

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Alone

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Afraid

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Shamed

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Trapped

If Sunday were not to come,
where would it leave you?

Confused

Where does it leave you?

Where does it leave you?

Until we understand where we are left without the resurrection, Sunday will never have its full impact.
