II Peter 1:1-15

Summary of the passage:

Based on who you are in Christ,
there are implicit qualities of your faith,
that result in you being useful, fruitful, and stable;
...but if you have lost sight of these truths
it indicates that you have forgotten who you are;
so to be reminded often is important
so you can recall them at a moments notice.

Love: Agape...a self-sacrificing action on behalf of another

Brotherly affection: the warmth and affection of a family

Godliness: “a devoutness, a piety, a devotion to God”

Steadfastness: a resilience and a determination

Self-control: literally “being held in”...by the Spirit

Knowledge: a solid and in-depth understanding of truth

Virtue: the ability to perform heroic deeds of moral beauty

Faith: entrusting our whole lives now and forever to the work of Christ

1 Corinthians 12

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers.

I do not want you to be uniformed.

2 You know that when you were pagans you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led.

3 Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says

“Jesus is accursed!”

and no one can say

“Jesus is Lord”

except in the Holy Spirit.

I do not wish you to be ignorant.

3 Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking in the church should say

“Jesus is adored”

and no one can say

“Jesus is Lord”

I do not wish you to be Greek: 'charisma', formed.

2 You know that you were led astray to mute 'dorea' magans you were led.

3 Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking in the Spirit says

"Jesus is ad"

and no one can

"Jesus is Lo"

except in the Holy Spirit

2 You know that you were led astray to mute 'dorea' Gifts of God's grace as pagans you were led.

3 Therefore I want you to know that no one speaking in the church that enable and empower His people to advance and says

"Jesus is above the church and no one can advance His kingdom in and through the church.

"Jesus is Lord of the church.

4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit,
5 and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord;

God who empowers them all in everyone.
7 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

- 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit,
- 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,
- 10 To another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.
- 11 All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as He will.

8 For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

9 to another faith by the same Spirit,
to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit,

10 To another the working of miracles,
to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as He will.

- 12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ.
- 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body— Jews and Greeks, slaves or free— and all were made to drink of the one Spirit.
- 14 For the body does not consist of one member but of many.

- 15 If the foot should say,
 “Because I am not a hand,
 I do not belong to the body,”
that would not make it any less a part of the body.
- 16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,: that would not make it any less a part of the body.
- 17 If the whole body were an eye,
 where would be the sense of hearing?

- 17 If the whole body were an eye,
where would be the sense of hearing?
If the whole body were an ear,
where would be the sense of smell?
- 18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body,
each one of them as He chooses.
- 19 If all were a single member,
where would the body be?
- 20 As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

21 The eye cannot say to the hand,
 “I have no need of you,”
nor again the head to the feet,
 “I have no need of you.”

22 On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable,

23 and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty,

24 which our more presentable part do not require.

But God has so composed the body,

giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

25 that there may be no division in the body,

but that the members may have the same care for one another.

26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

24 which our more presentable part do not require.

But God has so composed the body,
giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

25 that there may be no division in the body,

but that the members may have the same care for
one another.

26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

24 which our more presentable part do not require.

But God has so composed the body,
giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

25 that there may be no division in the body,

but that the members may have the same care for
one another.

26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers?
Do all work miracles?

30 Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

31 But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Chapter 13

31 But earnestly desire the higher gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Chapter 13

- 1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.
- 2 And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.
- 3 If I give away all I have, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

they are simply governed by maturity.
