

A perspective view of a tunnel with concentric circular walls. The left side of the tunnel is illuminated with purple light, and the right side with green light. BELONG

A close-up, top-down view of a camera lens. The lens is composed of several concentric glass elements, creating a series of circular patterns. The lighting is dramatic, with a strong blue glow on the left side and a warm orange glow on the right side. 13 Is anyone among you in trouble? He should pray. Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise.

14 Is anyone one of you sick? He should call the elders of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven.

16 Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.

17 Elijah was a man, just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years.

18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

1 Kings:16:30,33

30 Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the Lord than any of those before him.

33 ...And did more to arouse the anger of the Lord, the God of Israel, than did all the kings of Israel before him.

1 Kings:17:1

1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, “As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word.”

1 Kings:18:1,45

1 After a long time, in the third year, the word of the Lord came to Elijah: “Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”

45 Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain started falling and Ahab rode off to Jezreel.
