Luke 15

- 1 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear Him.
- 2 And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying “This man receives sinners and eats with them.”
- 3 So He told them this parable:

Luke 14

Luke 14

Exactng the cost of being a follower of Jesus:

- making God our priority relationship
even over family
- bearing the difficulties and opposition that we will face
- to renounce or submit all that we have to His authority

Luke 14

34 “Salt is good, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored?

35 It is of no use either for the soil or for the manure pile. It is thrown away.

He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Jesus used parables to reveal the truth to those who wanted to know it and to conceal the truth from those who were indifferent. (Matthew 12)

3 So He told them this parable:

4 “What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it?

5

*And when he has found it,
he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.*

6

And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them,

‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.’

7

Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

*And when he has found it,

6

*And when he comes home, he calls
together his friends and his
neighbors, saying to them,*

*'Rejoice with me, for I have
found my sheep that was lost.'*

7 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

8

Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it?

And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.'

Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."
