

Today in our city, there looms
unrest,
discontent,
division,
and the threat of violence.

This will probably blow over but we will be left with the ongoing tensions and agendas of various and many times polarized people and groups.

This will probably blow over but we will be left with the ongoing tensions and agendas of various and many times polarized people and groups.

So what do we do?

This will probably blow over but we will be left with the ongoing tensions and agendas of various and many times polarized people and groups.

So what do we do?
So what do I do?

Joshua 5:13-15

- 13 When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing before him with his drawn sword in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you for us, or for our adversaries?”
- 14 And he said, “No, but I am the commander of the army of the Lord. Now I have come.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshipped and said to him, “What does my lord say to his servant?”
- 15 And the commander of the Lord’s arm said to Joshua, “Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Micah 6:8

6 He has told you, O man, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you but
to do justice,
and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God.

So what would it look like for you to...

do justice,

and to love kindness,

and to walk humbly with your God.

So what would it look like for you to...

do justice,
and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God.

For me it looks like _____.
