II Corinthians 5:14-21 The Mission

- 14 For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died;
- 15 and He died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for Him who for their sake died and was raised.
- 16 Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard Him thus no longer.
- 17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to Himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making His appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

21 For our sake He made Him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

18 All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to Himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

II Corinthians 6:1-13 The Conditions of the Mission

1 Working together with Him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

2 For He says,

"In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

3 We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,

4 but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way:

by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities,

5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger;

1 Working together with Him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

2 For He says,

"In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.

11 We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians;
our heart is wide open.

12 You are not restricted by us,
but you are restricted in your own affections.

13 In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

So.....therefore.....what now?

So.....therefore.....what now?

We are all on mission together.....

It's a team effort where everyone is needed.
